John Lyre, an old resident of Oregon died at Salem on last Saturday at the age of 18 years

Considerable lumber is being received at Roseburg from other parts of the State and many improvements are being made

A man named Brown has been held to answer on a charge of attempting to rob a saloon keeper's till in Eugene City on the 2 d ult

The next term of the Wallamet University will begin on the 16th instant. A model school will be made a feature of this prominent Institution hereafter

The Sheriff of Josephine county arrived in Salem on Thursday with another convict for the Penitentiary—a half breed, convicted of burglary and sentenced to imprisonment for two years.

A wagon containing a woman and two children turned over twice in about a second and a half, near Myrtle Creek last week, but fortunately and almost miraculously, no one was much injured.

The Secretary of State has received the official returns of the late election from Columbia county. Grant received 117 votes, Greeley, 81, and the O'Conor electors a scattering vote averaging about 15. Tillamook is yet out in the cold.

Somebody has put up a fire alarm bell for the Corvallisites, and the Democrat is so ungrateful as to advise the city to sell it to a farmer to put on his goat and then buy a cow bell to put on the city bell tower

The meeting of the Washington County Farmers' Club at Hillsboro last Saturday was well attended, and much general interest was manifested. A correspondent suggests "that the rule of limiting the speakers to a certain length of time at the meeting of the club be adopted, so that each one can tell what he knows, and let his neighbor have a chance to jaw also."

The Eugene Guard has the following. On Monday of last week, Messrs Lynch and Strange, and two hunters from Yamhill county, went up the McKenzie river on a hunting excursion. They returned on Monday, having killed 41 deer, a panther and a lynx. This rather beats the Linn county hunters, as it took five of them a week to kill 22 deer. And now we live on venison steaks.

B L Arnold, President of the State Agricultural College at Corvallis, notifies the young men of Oregon that that institution is now fully organized with a full corps of teachers. Each State Senator is authorized to appoint two students, who receive their instruction free. Any young man, sixteen years of age, and of good moral character, can get an appointment by applying to the Senator of his district, or addressing the President.

The Plaindealer says. Tom Tindall, one of the drivers of the overland stage, informs us, that as he was driving across Yonum's bridge on the South Umpqua last Monday night, on his way to Canyonville, some person had removed a sufficient number of planks to allow the team to go through, which he only prevented by pulling them up suddenly on the very brink. The bridge is about 30 feet high. The motive for the act is unknown, and it seems almost incredible that any one could be so depraved.

The citizens of Yaquina Bay have projected a scheme which, if successfully carried out, will prove of incalculable benefit, not only to themselves, but to the entire county. It is proposed that the Pioneer and Newport Wagon Road shall be completed through to the beach, thus obviating the necessity of traveling between these points by water. Mr Alfred Cloake one of the most energetic, through going citizens of that section, now offers to open the road through to Newport, by the first of next April, for the sum of $200

From the Plaindealer. "Several of the merchants in different parts of the country, and all of the saloon keepers, were indicted at the late term of the Circuit Court, for carrying on business on the first day of the week, commonly called the Lord's Day. The service of the bench warrants upon the victims seemed to have caused considerable feeling. It is, of course, proper to enforce the law so long as it remains on the statute book, though it may work a hardship with those whose religion obliges them to observe the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath."

Says the Roseburg Plaindealer. "The old Court House, which has been used for some time past as a cabinet shop, has been removed to the lot of T P Sheridan, to be converted into a warehouse for his increased stock. We felt like shedding tears as we saw the old building, around which clustered so many memories, being converted to the purposes of trade. In this building Judge Deady held the first Court, and it has since been occupied by Judges Prim, Stratton, Kelsey and Thayer. These dilapidated walls have echoed back the burning words of Judge O C Pratt and Alexander Campbell, of San Francisco. Delazon Smith, ex Governor A C Gibbs, Geo. H Williams, J H. Mitchell, S F Chadwick, Rufus Mallory, and a host of the brilliant lawyers of this State. Here have the politicians made their most effective appeals. Our emotion prevents our continuing. We can only say [illegible] greatness."

The Salem Statesman, speaking of Wapato Dave, an Indian charged with murder, says: "This Grand Ronde brave has had his character somewhat in peril this week. The grand jury has been inquiring whether he killed a squaw in this county last fall. Dave went on a rousing drunk during which and in his company, a squaw did him the injustice to die suddenly and mysteriously, in Dave's wagon. It was known that he had, in accordance with time honored Siwash usage, kicked her some, cuffed her some, and banged her around some—just to keep things quiet and pleasant—and there were people illiberal and suspicious enough to think that, maybe, Dave had overdone the matter of patriarchal chastisement to the extent of kicking, cuffing and banging the woman to the other side of the Indian river Jordan. The grand jury, however, couldn't find it so, and the imputation against Dave's character for peace and quietness has been removed. Dave didn't kill the squaw."

The Statesman says. Secretary Chadwick informs us that the principal object of his late visit to Eugene City was to make some arrangement with the Surveyor General by which it might be ascertained and definitely settled what lands belong to the State and what are subject to entry under the United States pre emption and homestead laws. The instructions to surveyors as to the designation of the character of lands directs them to designate lands as arable where the arable land of the smallest legal subdivision predominates. The swamp lands have been located according to these designations but it is found that many settlers have been recently going upon these so designated swamp lands, and claiming them under the homestead or pre emption laws. Of course this multiplies conflicts and also reduces the number of acres which the State can finally make available. The number of conflicts that have reached the office of the Board of School Land Commissioners has become so formidable that something had to be done, to protect not only swamp land claimants, but the rights of the State in the premises. Mr Chadwick informs us that an understanding will probably be arrived at, by which the State land will be saved to the State without the bother and expense of suits

Particulars of Greeley's Death

NEW YORK Nov 29 —The Tribune issues the following bulletin:

November 29—8 P M —Mr Greeley died very quietly and without pain at ten minutes before 7 this evening. He was conscious and rational.

NEW YORK Nov 29 —Horace Greeley's life was insured for $100 000 for the benefit of the Tribune Association.

It is announced that the Chappaqua homestead of Greeley is to be abandoned by the family, and that the property is to be auctioneered off to morrow

Editorial Remarks on Greeley

NEW YORK, Nov 30 —The Times editorial on Greeley's death says. Greeley's loss in journalism is one which cannot be replaced. The incidents of his last sickness were peculiarly distressing and from all we can learn his reverses during the late campaign cannot alone account for them. He had been successful, the probabilities are that he would not have lived so over taxed was his strength so utterly broken down seems to have been his constitution. The labors and excitement of the canvass were more than his body or mind could bear. We shall not attempt at this moment to do justice to Greeley as a journalist and as a public man. His life is a part of the history of the country during the last thirty years and the time has not yet come when it can be impartially considered. It is certain that Greeley's name will always be honored in connection with the anti slavery struggle and with many important measures which he fought for with remarkable valor, simply because he believed they were right. Into these subjects we will not now enter for the country is scarcely rid of the din and turmoil of a memorable and an unhappy past. Historians will do justice to Greeley, and meanwhile his countrymen will be strangely forgetful if they fail to pay due tribute to his memory. He has been before them for almost a generation and he has had their confidence in many trying periods of our history. Let us now remember only his virtues and his genius."

The Tribune says: "The melancholy announcement of the death of the editor who founded the Tribune, though for a few days it has been expected by his family and intimate friends falls upon us all with the shock of a sudden calamity. He had indeed reached a high old age but time had not laid its withering touch on him. His splendid constitution easily bore the strain of enormous labor, his mind was as fresh, strong and suggestive as in the prime of life. His generous impulses were unchilled by the disheartening experience through the trying campaign which has just closed. His physical vigor, his tact, his intellectual activity surprised even those who knew him best and seemed to promise many years of usefulness. It is certain that no history of the critical period of our national life can ever be written in which Horace Greeley shall not be a conspicuous figure. His only ambition was to alleviate human misery and leave the world a little better than he found it. That he had done this was a consolation that brightened his last days and assured him that he had not lived in vain. It is not for us in the first hour of our loss to extol his character or catalogue its virtues. Although for several months we have missed the inspiration of his presence and guidance, his wise counsel, his spirit which never ceased to animate those closest to continue his work, and the close bonds of sympathy between the chief and his assistants have never been broken. We leave his praise to the poor whom he succored, to the lowly whom he lifted up, to the slaves whose backs he saved from the lash, to the oppressed, whose wrongs he made his own.

Betting at the start was 100 to 40 on Dion as the favorite, which position he kept to the close though in the early part Deery led considerably. At the eighty sixth inning Deery was 1,170 and Dion 1 112. The positions changed in the eighty eighth inning, when Dion made a run of 340 and kept the lead until the close

Heavy Indian Fight in Southern Oregon

ASHLAND (Ogn.) Dec. 1st —The Commissioner of Indian affairs having directed Superintendent Odeneal to put the Modoc Indians upon the Klamath reservation, peaceably if possible, but forcibly if he must, he proceeded in person to execute the order. All efforts to persuade them to return to the agency proving fruitless and they having peremptorily refused to go the matter of removing them was referred to the military. On the 28th at noon Major Jackson of Company B 1st Cavalry with thirty five men left for Klamath and marching continuously all this afternoon and all night arrived at the camp of the Modocs near the mouth of Lost river at seven o clock the following morning. He at once surrounded the camp and requested an interview with the head men only one of whom, Scar faced Charley, appeared. A half hour's conversation ensued in which the Indians were informed that the soldiers did not come to fight, but to demand that they go upon the reservation and they were assured that ample provision had been made for their subsistence and that they should be fully protected in all their rights. They refused to accede to the demand and were then commanded to lay down their arms. While they were parleying on the subject Scar faced Charley raised his gun and fired at Lieutenant Boutelle who was in front of his men, but missed his aim. Instantly the Lieutenant returned the fire and killed Charley. This caused a general simultaneous fire on both sides.

The battle was a desperate one lasting about two hours. One soldier was killed and four wounded. Two citizens Wm Nuss and Thurber alias "Jack of Clubs" were killed. Fifteen Indians were killed nearly all the women and children, some of the warriors and a number of horses, were captured. The Indians then retreated to the hills, but in the afternoon returned to the camp and commenced firing again. Three more Indians were killed, many wounded and some captured. At latest accounts firing at intervals was going on. The Indians engaged are estimated at sixty. There were some thirty more at a camp about fifteen miles distant. It is supposed that these would arrive the following night and that another fight would take place. The citizens were arming and getting ready to go to the assistance of Maj Jackson should an emergency require their services. The women captured say that among the number killed were the four desperate chiefs, Capt Jack Black Jim, The Doctor and Scar faced Charley, who have been the cause of all the insubordination of their followers. In about this, excepting the last one named, there is some doubt

ASHLAND Dec 1 —George Conn, who has just arrived from Linkville, leaving there at 5 P M yesterday and riding all night, reports three men killed, named Boddy, on Tule Lake, by Modocs. The women escaped by walking nine miles to a house. Fears are entertained that many more are murdered. Mr Conn brings letters from prominent citizens asking for help and A J Burnett sends a message to Governor Grover, asking for assistance from the State. A D Applegate writes "He can't hold out long. He must have help. He was to start for Clear Lake last night with a small party to give the settlers notice and protection. They are short of arms and ammunition"

A meeting of the citizens of this place will be held to-night to make arrangements to send them assistance

MONDAY MORNING DECEMBER 2 1872

Troubles in France

There appears a strong probability that France is again to be involved in serious troubles The bitterness between the members of the Right and President Thiers does not give way before the threatened calamity of national disorders With a peasantry as industrious, frugal and orderly as that of any nation of Europe France is never at rest except when under such Governmental restraints as make disorders impossible The politics of the French capital like its morals has no settled principles Whether the form of civil government be that of monarchy or republic, it is equally the sport of the passions and caprices of a set of political adventurers and madcaps The moderate and well considered words of Thiers in his message at the opening of the Assembly, were made the occasion of those ill timed remarks of Gambetta's, for which the Right were but too willing to hold the Government responsible, without the shadow of a reason therefor

The course which the complications have taken indicates that there is such a thorough misunderstanding on all sides and so little confidence anywhere, that the Administration may be saved and order restored without bloodshed, simply by reason of the inability of the enemies of the Government to unite upon any line of action That the present Government is merely provisional in its character is well understood but the friends of France, supposing the establishment of a constitutional monarchy, or the restoration of the Empire, to be impossible, if it were desirable, in the present State of French sentiment, and recognizing at the same time the difficulty of the immediate organization of the republic upon a firm and permanent basis, have fondly hoped to see the present order of things continue until the republican character should be impressed upon the institutions of the country and republican ideas become the groundwork of the people s thoughts Thus the establishment of a constitutional republic would be a process of natural development rather than the result of external forces. Such is the idea of Thiers Of his message the Pittsburg Gazette says

> The strength of the message turns, however, in the advice tendered the several parties in the Assembly, in behalf of the maintenance of the Republic, even though something of partisan advantage must be foregone He advises against the formal proclamation of a Republic, believing the better policy to be to create and consolidate an actual Republic, rather than proclaim an imaginary one This part of the message is really statesmanlike, and shows Thiers to be possessed of a clear comprehension of the peculiarities of the French character He seems to thoroughly realize the danger that menaces the Republic. It is not from the ill will of the surrounding powers, as nothing of the kind exists but the real danger is in the rabid partisanship of the French people He urges that be foregone and that every possible effort be put forth to maintain quiet, order, and law within the bounds of France, if they would not experience a repetition of past misfortunes —anarchy a dictatorship and an Empire We hope in the interests of peace and civilization, that the Assembly will listen to the wise counsels of the Executive

France is not yet prepared for a government of laws. She has been too long accustomed to personal rule, to pass at once out into the clear light of republican liberty The Empire was an Empire of Napoleon rather than that of France, and the Republic has not ceased to be the Republic of Thiers The perils arising from the diversity of political views among the different factions, and the necessity for the lapse of time, and for the greatest wisdom and sagacity in the executive are thus expressed by the Boston Advertiser

> There are dangers for France, on every side, and perhaps her best chance of safety lies in the fact that those dangers counterbalance each other The Left watches the Right, the Left center the Right center, and each member of each section, every other member If one party seems for the moment to outweigh the others, shifty Thiers throws himself into the balance, and an equilibrium is established For this species of management he possesses the requisite qualities in perfection—vigilance of eye, promptitude of intellect, adroitness of statement, fascination of manner, the capacity of putting himself and all of himself precisely where he is wanted or wants to be
> Were Thiers sure of living twenty years longer with unimpaired faculties France might perhaps establish a Republican form of government a government of laws enacted by representatives of the people and administered with impartiality He might, perhaps preserve his country from wars, foreign and domestic, and enable her to repair her great losses, to reanimate her courage, and to quiet her nerves

The State of Minnesota proposes to test the power of the Legislature to limit the rates of freight and passage upon the railways doing business under the corporation laws of that commonwealth In 1871, a law was passed prescribing a tariff of rates for freight and passengers, and making it the duty of the Attorney General to file a complaint and prosecute every Company guilty of violating the act by overcharges The penalty for such violation is the forfeiture of all corporate franchises, and the courts are required upon conviction of any corporation under the law, to decree the dissolution thereof and appoint a receiver to wind up its affairs And in addition to these proceedings, which can only be taken at the instance of the State the individual aggrieved by the violation of the law, may maintain an action in his own name and recover one thousand dollars as fixed and liquidated damages

Two actions are now pending and will be taken to the Supreme Court to test the constitutionality of this act and the State Railway Commissioner, A J, Edgerton, Esq thinks there is little doubt that the law will be sustained Its severity may have a tendency toward defeating its object as it is sometimes the case that the courts are more or less influenced in their decisions by considerations of the gravity of the consequences that may follow

The Superintendent of Indian Affairs is having a boisterous time with his wards The battle reported in our dispatches was a very serious affair. We believe the course pursued by the Superintendent is the one that ought to have been taken long ago Had it been understood by the Indians from the first that the authorities would permit no trifling, much trouble might have been avoided It is the merciful as well as the reasonable way to deal with these savages, to make them feel that they can not safely defy the power of the Government

The "Irish Republican Publication Company" has been formed at Washington City for the purpose of publishing the Irish Republican newspaper, the successor of the old Irish Republic of Chicago first then of New York The ' platform' of the paper is announced to be the same as heretofore the propagation of the principles of Irish Nationalism

It is said Governor Booth and John B Felton will unite their strength on whichever of the two shall be found the stronger, in order to defeat Geo C Gorham for the United States Senate from California

Land Reservations

Under the above caption the British Colonist of Nov 22d has an article criticising the Land Department of the Dominion Government in terms very bitter but so far as we can see quite just Quoting the following The whole of the land in the valley of the Chilcotin river extending back on either side to the hilltops is reserved from the operation of the Land Ordinance 1870 until further notice and pending the location in allotment to the Indians of the lands to be set apart for their use and enjoyment The Colonist adds

> So runs a notice in the [illegible] and dated 10th August 1872 To those unfamiliar with the circumstances of the case this notice might be thought of little consequence But a very brief statement of facts will tend to show that it is of very great consequence The country covered by these simple and seemingly unimportant words comprises the entire Chilcotin valley something like 200 miles in length with a varying width of from fifty to one hundred miles About this valley very little was known until quite recently The railway exploratory surveys of the present year have however completely lifted the veil and revealed one of the most fertile and desirable stretches of country that is to be found on the Pacific slope This is no exaggeration no careless use of words It is the simple statement of a fact which will be corroborated by every intelligent member of the surveying parties who has passed through the country in question No sooner, however, had the exploratory survey demonstrated this fact than along came the man with brush and paint pot from the most vigilant Land Office and wrote Reserved over the whole sweep of fertile country!

The Colonist then proceeds to show that there are only about two hundred Indians in the Chilcotin country, and they of the nomadic and savage class who neither preempt nor cultivate land, and draws the very rational inference from the whole matter that this is simply a pretext through which the transcontinental railway company, operating under a land grant act giving it, under conditions similar to those in our land grants all the unappropriated lands for twenty miles on each side of its road is finally to appropriate to itself all this vast and fertile region

A preliminary business meeting of the Philadelphia Centennial Committee was held on the 18th ult to provide for subscriptions to the stock of the Centennial Fund as authorized by act of Congress June 1, 1872 books for which were opened An impromptu subscription was started in the Committee, and in a few minutes forty of its members subscribed $100 000 This was entirely a spontaneous movement among a few of the Committee-men It is expected that Philadelphia will subscribe more than the quota allotted to the whole State of Pennsylvania, say about $1 000,000

A dispatch says the stupendous fraud by which the operators in the Arizona diamond scheme bilked the community out of something like four hundred thousand dollars, is considered in San Francisco ' an abnormal swindle ' It does not state what swindles are deemed normal in that city

The New York Times thus comments on the reply of General Grant to the politicians who sought to control his action in the appointment of a Postmaster at Philadelphia

> Naturally enough the politicians are in great wrath over the proposed action of the President in the appointment of the Philadelphia Postmaster and we are not surprised to hear that they have set up a wall at Washington concerning the ruin which is to come upon the Republican party if the offices are not to go to those whom the local managers select as 'influential" We have been so long in the habit of bestowing office as the reward of partisan service or as a supposed means to strengthen party influence, that it is plain the President is to meet with strenuous opposition in carrying into practice those principles of civil service reform to which he is pledged But we think they will find that, being pledged to them, he will put them in practice whenever occasion is offered, and in the end, his course will strengthen the party rather than weaken it For every politician who becomes indifferent or hostile from lack of reward, a score of voters who do not seek places, will come to the support of the party which honestly and faithfully attempts to elevate and purify the civil service of the country

Hon R B Elliot (colored) Congressman from South Carolina, is a candidate for the United States Senate A report having got abroad that he intends to withdraw he publishes the following card

> I am a candidate for the position of United States Senator from this State, and shall remain a candidate until the final vote shall have been reached by the General Assembly Underlying my candidacy is a question of principle right and justice, which I am determined so far as I am able, to have asserted. I am determined to have the question at once settled, as to whether the lack of money shall exclude men from office or whether those qualities alone that can conscientiously appeal to the higher sensibilities of our manhood shall prevail My every effort shall be to have the whole of the people of this State as well as of the entire country understand whether or not the performance of the pledges recently made by the Republican party, shall be foreshadowed by the blighting influence of a purchased seat in the Senate of the nation

OIL EXPLOSIONS —The Pittsburg Gazette gives the following particulars of a test of fluids used for the purpose of light

> Owing to the fact that there have been several oil explosions during the past few weeks, the United States Inspectors made a test in the Custom House building Smithfield street Saturday A measure of the fluid which caused the death of a young woman a week ago was procured, and also a tin can fifteen inches in diameter The lid of the can was then saturated with the fluid about a teaspoonful being poured upon it after which it was poured back into the bottle The lid was then turned upside down and forced into the can and after a little while the heavy gas reached the bottom of the can Through an opening a lighted match was held under the oil and the gas ignited immediately and the lid of the can on which a four pound weight had been placed was sent flying to the ceiling The result was startling and shows the danger of using oil of such a character as some that appears to be in the market

The Boston Advertiser of Nov 1th has the following

> A good audience gathered in the Music Hall last evening in the expectation of hearing Bret Harte lecture upon ' The Argonauts of '49 ' as advertised At 7 30 Mr Redpath stated without attempting to conceal his annoyance that after every effort on the part of the committee they had been unable to hold Mr Harte to his engagement This said Mr Redpath "is the third time that the Heathen Chinee has insulted a Boston audience and I think it is time this man was taught his place It is the custom in this course in any case where the committee have been unable to keep their promise for them to procure a lecturer of superior merit to the one advertised and this evening we have the pleasure of announcing Dr Oliver Wendell Holmes Dr Holmes after explaining that he had been summoned unexpectedly read portions of his lecture on English Versification and selections from his own poems

At the investigation of the burning of the ill fated steamship Missouri on the 16th ult Louis Boheme testified

> I was the pantryman on board the Missouri The fire was first discovered in the locker in the pantry where they kept a 5 gallon glass of aguardiente, used for the lamps by which dishes were kept warm Dishes were stored in the same locker, and the demijohn was broken by the rolling of the vessel From the testimony it appears that the fire was caught by the spilling of the aguardiente on the deck of the vessel, the said deck being at the time so badly constructed or rather had not been caulked recently, that the aguardiente ran through the crevices on to the hot boiler, igniting in an instant the whole of the vessel where any of this inflammable article had touched

Some unknown individual attempted to Chicagoize Independence in Polk county, on Wednesday night of last week These attempted arsons are getting monotonous

Says the Missouri Democrat

> As the Senatorial fight progresses it becomes more and more apparent that Blair s only hope is to bully a majority of the Democrats into giving him a caucus nomination, and then to bully the rest into supporting the caucus nominee The Democrats of Missouri are indebted to Mr Blair for nothing except two national defeats He represents the Seymour fiasco of 1868 and the Greeley fiasco of 1872 and is, more than any other individual, responsible for both He is just now ardently engaged in the work of his own renomination, but if there is anything like a united effort against him, he will be defeated

Mr George Humphreys, Deputy Sheriff of Linn county, went down to Newport last week to arrest one Levi Livingston charged with counterfeiting money He found his man and informed him of his mission Livingston accepted the situation and asked permission to go into an adjoining room to change his clothes After waiting a sufficient length of time for a Parisian belle to make her toilet George went for his protege, but the bird had flown The Deputy returned to Albany last Saturday Moral Always take your prisoners with their old clothes on

HELD TO APPEAR.—A person residing in this city, whose name we deem it proper to suppress for the present, was arrested last evening on a charge of having aided another man to escape who was guilty of embezzling a large sum of money in Iowa, some time ago. It appears that an officer arrived a few days since from Iowa, armed with a requisition from the Governor of that State, for the arrest of the person guilty of the embezzlement. By some means it was positively known to the officer that "his man" was residing on a small farm in Washington county. On his arrival here, the officer was indiscreet enough to communicate the object of his visit to the person now under arrest, instead of to the Chief of Police. The following morning the officer started to Salem to get his requisition countersigned by Governor Grover. During his absence, it is alleged that the man to whom he had communicated his secret, mounted a horse, rode out to Washington county, and informed the person for whom the requisition was designed, that he was in jeopardy. The party whose liberty was thus endangered, took precious good care to put distance between himself and the quiet precincts of his "little home." When the officer returned, armed with the necessary documents, he found his bird had flown. As he had told but one person, he, after some tracing of the matter, swore out a warrant for the arrest of the party now in question. The, for the time being, nameless individual was taken into custody last evening, and was held to appear before Judge Denny this morning in the sum of $1,000.

COURTS.—The United States Circuit Court will convene this morning at the usual hour.

The Circuit Court, Judge Upton presiding, will reconvene at 9 o'clock this morning, pursuant to adjournment. The court will resume the trial of criminal cases on the docket, some 15 yet remaining to be disposed of. On the docket being cleared civil business will be resumed.

In accordance with law the County Court, Judge Hamilton presiding, will meet this morning to transact such county business as may come before the body.

The grand jury for Multnomah county will reassemble this morning, when they will proceed to the investigation of several cases which have been sent up from the Police and Justices' Courts. They expect to finish their labors by the end of the present week.

In conformity with law and long established custom, Judge Denny will hold "levee" this morning at the Police Court.

"RAMBUNCTIOUS."—A man named Warren was arrested last night near the Taylor street M. E. Church, for creating a disturbance and for general disorderly conduct. He was standing within ear shot of the congregation when taken into custody, and was making use of the most vilely obscene and profane language. He resisted all the way down to jail, and could only be induced to accompany the officers by main force. When the officers endeavored to search his person at the jail, he made such violent resistance that he nearly escaped from the clutches of the guardians of peace. To one he administered a tremendous kick, and to another he dealt a stunning blow. At length he was "floored" and his pockets searched. A small piece of tobacco and an old worthless watch was the only article which rewarded the efforts of the officers. He was thrust into a dark cell and allowed until this morning to "cool off."

ANOTHER ORDER.—One would have supposed that in Portland there already exists enough Associations and Orders for any city containing a similar number of inhabitants, but a cotemporary notes the fact that an association of a benevolent character has recently been formed in this city, embracing within its membership several of our prominent citizens. It is of a secret nature, and is known as "The Independent Order of Good Fellows." The exact character of this new Order is not known. If the object is to effect the general welfare, as all "good fellows" should, prosperity attend them in their efforts.

DIED.—Mr. T. H. Tilghman, whose obituary notice appears in another column, died at his residence in East Portland on Saturday last. Deceased was aged 42 years, and leaves a wife and several children. Mr. Tilghman was a Major in the Mexican war, and served with honorable distinction during its continuance. He has not resided but a short time in the State. His disease was consumption. The body will be buried to-day by the Mexican Veterans, of which body he was a member in life. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock P. M. from the St. David's Church, East Portland.

FAILURE OF THE APPLE CROP.—We were shown yesterday a letter bearing date of Plymouth, England, October 30th of the present year, which was received by a gentleman in this city. The writer states that there has been a marked failure in the apple crop throughout the realm the present season. The apple crop in Somersetshire and Devonshire counties, the letter states, is an almost total failure, all the orchards being comparatively fruitless. The failure of the crop in these counties falls with peculiar weight, as that branch of agriculture represents a large proportion of the capital.

THE FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—In pursuance of the law regulating the Fire Department of Portland, the annual election will be held to-day. One Chief Engineer, and (two First and Second) Assistants are to be elected. The election will be held at the house of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, on Yamhill street. Polls open from ten o'clock A. M. to four P. M. The candidates for the position of Chief Engineer are A. A. Williams (present incumbent,) W. O. Bruen and A. Wendt. For Assistants the aspirants are J. B. Reynolds, J. P. Wilcox, J. F. Gallagher and A. J. Gray.

NEW "SLIP."—Hereafter the boats from Oregon City will land at the provided slip just below the Steamship Company's dock, at the foot of G street. An apron which connects with the upper and lower story of the dock, is being constructed, one over the other, resting on piles and supported by strong timbers. Like the stories of the dock, boats can land at any stage of water, and have wharf accommodations. Yesterday a number of carpenters were engaged all day in raising the frames for the upper story of the apron. Boats will continue to land at the slip for the future.

MRS. DUNIWAY'S LECTURE.—The announcement made last week that Mrs. A. J. Duniway would deliver a lecture at Oro Fino theater last evening, had the effect to attract a large audience of ladies and gentlemen. The subject of the lecture was "The Social Evil and Christianity." The exercises opened with congregational singing, followed by reading of a portion of the scriptures, and prayer by the speaker. The subject matter of the lecture consisted of a general review of the tendencies of the social evil and its relations to Christianity.

STREET CARS.—The intention of the Street Railway Company has been to have everything in complete readiness to put the cars in operation on the first of the present month. Work on the new stable has not been quite completed, and may delay the running of the cars for a few days. A number of carpenters are busily engaged, and every effort will be made to finish the stable as soon as possible, as nothing else delays the cars from being now in operation.

LOSSES BY FIRE.—The following are the names of the insurance companies involved by the Oregon City fire that occurred Saturday morning Nov 23d, and the losses sustained by each of them. Union, $5,000, Scottish, $5,000, Home Mutual, $10,000, Imperial, $10,000, Underwriters, $10,000; Fireman's Fund, $7,500, Commercial, $5,000, California, $5,000, Hartford [illegible], Ætna, $5,000. Total, $67,000.

LAUNCHED.—The hull of the new dredger, which has been in course of construction for some time under the supervision of Major Robert, was launched from the ways above the lower sawmill last Friday. The machinery has been completed and will soon be placed in. The dredger will probably be ready to commence operations, should none of the machinery arrive from the East in time—by the first of February.

STORM AT SEA.—A heavy rain and wind storm, it is said, raged at Astoria last Thursday and Friday. That circumstance, in connection with a change of the moon, produced a very high tide on Saturday. The tidal effects were so noticeable on the stage of water in the river, that the ship Jane Nyanza, now discharging iron at Astoria, could have come up to Portland had there been a tug obtainable in time.

CARRIED AWAY.—The steamer Josie McNear carried away this morning a large quantity of building material to be used on the new oil house at Cape Disappointment.

NUMBER OF ARRESTS.—During the month of November 119 arrests were made by the police officers, classed as follows: Indecent exposure 1, drunk, 68, disorderly conduct 9, abusive language 2, vagrants 3, assault and battery, 21, larceny 6, selling unwholesome meat, 1, assault with a dangerous weapon 1, defacing a building 1, adultery 2, crazy, 1. Of these 11 were State and [illegible] city cases.

THE CURRENT.—After months of sluggish inactivity the Willamette has at length aroused from her lethargic slumbers and is manifesting signs of life again. The river has commenced to rise very slowly. In consequence of the rise and the recedence of the tide, a pretty strong current was observable yesterday. Quantities of light drift wood were seen passing along down the bosom of the stream.

LOSSES BEING ADJUSTED.—The agents of the several Insurance Companies involved by the recent disastrous fire at Oregon City, held a meeting in this city Saturday afternoon. The object was to adjust the losses sustained by each Company. The proper and satisfactory adjustment of the losses will probably require several days.

REPORT FILED.—The report of the Commissioners—Messrs J. M. Breck and L. H. Lewis—who were appointed to examine the stock of goods damaged by the recent fire at Baum Bros., has been filed and accepted. The actual losses sustained will soon be estimated, and proportionately divided between the two insurance companies.

QUICK TIME.—The steamer Dixie Thompson brought the bark Free Trade up from Astoria to this port last Saturday in eleven hours. This time, we have been informed, is the fastest on record in the Columbia river annals—no other steamer or tug having made that distance in the same time with a tow.

LANDING AT STARK STREET.—The steamer Vancouver has recently landed several times at the foot of Stark street to put ashore horses, which were on board. Owing to the low stage of the river, it is impossible for animals to ascend from the gang plank to the apron at the American Exchange wharf.

NEW TURN TABLE.—A new turn table has been constructed on First street, opposite the new stable, along the street railway track. The table is directly in the line of the rails, so that the cars can be diverted from the main track at right angles, and run in the stable for housing during the nights.

MISSION APPROPRIATION.—In New York City on the 14th ult., the General Missionary Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, completed its list of appropriations for the support of the mission work of the denomination. Among the amounts assigned was $6,000 for the Oregon Conference.

OVERBOARD.—A man named Thomas Smith fell overboard at the Stark street ferry Saturday evening and narrowly escaped drowning. He was semi-intoxicated at the time. After much trouble he was rescued by the engineers of the ferryboat.

ARRIVED.—The bark Free Trade arrived from San Francisco Saturday evening, in tow of the Dixie Thompson. She brings a large assorted cargo. The bark is lying at Flanders' wharf, and will commence discharging cargo to-day.

WENT OVER.—A short time after the arrival of the California at this port, she crossed to the east side wharf to grapple for a scow loaded with sand, which sunk at that point a few weeks ago.

DETAINED.—The California was detained two days in Neah Bay on her way to this port in consequence of a heavy storm, which compelled her to put in for shelter.

ARRIVED.—The steamer California arrived from Victoria and way ports last night about 9 30 o'clock. She brought no passengers and a full freight.

Living Advertisements.

A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopœia to protect the human system against the bodily ills superinduced by unhealthy surroundings, is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so exceedingly popular in localities subject to the visitation of miasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by unwholesome air. A family that has escaped sickness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bitters as a safeguard is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realize the fact. "I could not have believed it," says one, "I scarcely credit all the advertisements, but one must believe what one sees," says another. "It is the very thing we need in this unwholesome section of the country," remarks a third. And the result is that the instinct of self-defense, the first law of nature, induces all or a majority of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable antidote before the next sickly season sets in. In winter, when the system requires extra vigor and elasticity to enable it to bear the effects of damp and cold, the Bitters will be found particularly serviceable. Rheumatism will not be apt to [illegible] nerves that have been braced up by this excellent tonic, gout and neuralgia, [illegible] [illegible] the action of the [illegible] and [illegible] likely to [illegible] in cases where the stomach and the external surface of the body (which always sympathizes with the digestive organs) have been toned and stimulated by a course of the restorative. The ills of indigestion and irregularity of the bowels which proceed from sudden changes of weather may always be averted by a timely use of the Bitters.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

HELD TO ANSWER.—A person residing in this city, whose name we deem it proper to suppress for the present, was arrested last evening on a charge of having aided another man to escape who was guilty of embezzling a large sum of money in Iowa, some time ago. It appears that an officer arrived a few days since from Iowa armed with a requisition from the Governor of that State, for the arrest of the person guilty of the embezzlement. By some means it was possibly known to the officer that this man was residing on a small farm in Washington county. On his arrival here the officer was indiscreet enough to communicate the object of his visit to the person now under arrest, instead of to the Chief of Police. The following morning the officer started to Salem to get his requisition countersigned by Governor Grover. During his absence, it is alleged that the man to whom he had communicated his secret, mounted a horse, rode out to Washington county, and informed the person for whom the requisition was designed, that he was in jeopardy. The party whose liberty was thus endangered took precious good care to put distance between himself and the quiet precincts of his "little home." When the officer returned, armed with the necessary documents, he found his bird had flown. As he had told but one person, he, after some tracing of the matter, swore out a warrant for the arrest of the party now in question. The for the time being nameless individual was taken into custody last evening, and was held to appear before Judge Denny this morning in the sum of $1,000.

COURTS.—The United States Circuit Court will convene this morning at the usual hour.

The Circuit Court, Judge Upton presiding, will reconvene at 9 o'clock this morning, pursuant to adjournment. The court will resume the trial of criminal cases on the docket, some 15 yet remaining to be disposed of. On the docket being cleared civil business will be resumed.

In accordance with law the County Court, Judge Hamilton presiding, will meet this morning to transact such county business as may come before the body.

The grand jury for Multnomah county will reassemble this morning, when they will proceed to the investigation of several cases which have been sent up from the Police and Justices' Courts. They expect to finish their labors by the end of the present week.

In conformity with law and long established custom, Judge Denny will hold "levee" this morning at the Police Court.

"RAMBUNCTIOUS."—A man named Warren was arrested last night near the Taylor street M. E. Church, for creating a disturbance and for general disorderly conduct. He was standing within ear shot of the congregation when taken into custody, and was making use of the most vilely obscene and profane language. He resisted all the way down to jail, and could only be induced to accompany the officers by main force. When the officers endeavored to search his person at the jail, he made such violent resistance that he nearly escaped from the clutches of the guardians of peace. To one he administered a tremendous kick, and to another he dealt a stunning blow. At length he was "floored" and his pockets searched. A small piece of tobacco and an old worthless watch was the only article which rewarded the efforts of the officers. He was thrust into a dark cell and allowed until this morning to "cool off."

ANOTHER ORDER.—One would have supposed that in Portland there already exists enough Associations and Orders for any city containing a similar number of inhabitants but a cotemporary notes the fact that an association of a benevolent character has recently been formed in this city embracing within its membership several of our prominent citizens. It is of a secret nature and is known as "The Independent Order of Good Fellows." The exact character of this new Order is not known. If the object is to effect the general welfare, as all "good fellows" should, prosperity attend them in their efforts.

DIED.—Mr. T. H. Tilghman, whose obituary notice appears in another column, died at his residence in East Portland on Saturday last. Deceased was aged 13 years, and leaves a wife and several children. Mr. Tilghman was a Major in the Mexican war, and served with honorable distinction during its continuance. He has not resided but a short time in the State. His disease was consumption. The body will be buried to day by the Mexican Veterans, of which body he was a member in life. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock P. M. from the St David's Church, East Portland.

FAILURE OF THE APPLE CROP.—We were shown yesterday a letter bearing date of Plymouth, England, October 30th of the present year, which was received by a gentleman in this city. The writer states that there has been a marked failure in the apple crop throughout the realm the present season. The apple crop in Somersetshire and Devonshire counties, the letter states, is an almost total failure, all the orchards being comparatively fruitless. The failure of the crop in those counties falls with peculiar weight, as that branch of agriculture represents a large proportion of the capital.

THE FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—In pursuance of the law regulating the Fire Department of Portland, the annual election will be held to day. One Chief Engineer, and (two First and Second) Assistants are to be elected. The election will be held at the house of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, on Yamhill street. Polls open from ten o'clock A. M. to four P. M. The candidates for the position of Chief Engineer are A. A. Williams (present incumbent,) W. O'Bruen and A. Wendt. For Assistants the aspirants are J. B. Reynolds, J. P. Wilcox, J. F. Gallagher and A. J. Gray.

NEW "SLIP."—Hereafter the boats from Oregon City will land at the provided slip just below the Steamship Company's dock, at the foot of G street. An apron which connects with the upper and lower story of the dock, is being constructed, one over the other, resting on piles and supported by strong timbers. Like the stories of the dock boats can land at any stage of water, and have wharf accommodations. Yesterday a number of carpenters were engaged all day in raising the frames for the upper story of the apron. Boats will continue to land at the slip for the future.

MRS DUNIWAY'S LECTURE.—The announcement made last week that Mrs. A. J. Duniway would deliver a lecture at Oro Fino theater last evening, had the effect to attract a large audience of ladies and gentlemen. The subject of the lecture was "The Social Evil and Christianity." The exercises opened with congregational singing followed by reading of a portion of the scriptures, and prayer by the speaker. The subject matter of the lecture consisted of a general review of the tendencies of the social evil and its relations to Christianity.

STREET CARS.—The intention of the Street Railway Company has been to have everything in complete readiness to put the cars in operation on the first of the present month. Work on the new stable has not been quite completed, and may delay the running of the cars for a few days. A number of carpenters are busily engaged, and every effort will be made to finish the stable as soon as possible, as nothing else delays the cars from being now in operation.

LOSSES BY FIRE.—The following are the names of the insurance companies involved by the Oregon City fire that occurred Saturday morning Nov 23d, and the losses sustained by each of them: Union, $4,000; Scottish, $5,000; Home Mutual, $10,000; Imperial, $10,000; Underwriters, $10,000; Fireman's Fund, $7,500; Commercial, $5,000; California, $5,000; Hartford $3,000; Ætna, $5,000. Total, $67,000.

LAUNCHED.—The hull of the new dredger which has been in course of construction for some time under the supervision of Major Robert, was launched from the ways above the lower sawmill last Friday. The machinery has been completed and will soon be placed in. The dredger will probably be ready to commence operations should some of the machinery arrive from the East in time—by the first of February.

STORM AT SEA.—A heavy rain and wind storm, it is said, raged at Astoria last Thursday and Friday. That circumstance, in connection with a change of the moon, produced a very high tide on Saturday. The tidal effects were so noticeable in the stage of water in the river, that the ship Lucerne Nyassa, now discharging iron at Astoria, could have come up to Portland had there been a tug obtainable in time.

CARRIED AWAY.—The steamer Josie McNear carried away this morning a large quantity of building material to be used on the new oil house at Cape Disappointment.

NUMBER OF ARRESTS.—During the month of November 119 arrests were made by the police officers, classified as follows: Indecent exposure 1, drunk 68, disorderly conduct 9, abusive language 2, vagrants 3, assault and battery, 24 larceny 5, selling unwholesome meat 1, assault with a dangerous weapon 1, defacing a building 1, adultery 2, crazy 1. Of these 31 were State and 55 city cases.

THE CURRENT.—After months of sluggish inactivity the Wallamet has at length aroused from her lethargic slumbers and is manifesting signs of life again. The river has commenced to rise very slowly. In consequence of the rise and the recedence of the tide a pretty strong current was observable yesterday. Quantities of light drift wood were seen passing along down the bosom of the stream.

LOSSES BEING ADJUSTED.—The agents of the several Insurance Companies involved by the recent disastrous fire at Oregon City held a meeting in this city Saturday afternoon. The object was to adjust the losses sustained by each Company. The proper and satisfactory adjustment of the losses will probably require several days.

REPORT FILED.—The report of the Commissioners—Messrs. J. M. Breck and L. H. Lewis—who were appointed to examine the stock of goods damaged by the recent fire at Baum Bros., has been filed and accepted. The actual losses sustained will soon be estimated, and proportionately divided between the two insurance companies.

QUICK TIME.—The steamer Dixie Thompson brought the bark Free Trade up from Astoria to this port last Saturday in eleven hours. This time, we have been informed, is the fastest on record in the Columbia river annals—no other steamer or tug having made that distance in the same time with a tow.

LANDING AT STARK STREET.—The steamer Vancouver has recently landed several times at the foot of Stark street to put ashore horses, which were on board. Owing to the low stage of the river, it is impossible for animals to ascend from the gang plank to the apron at the American Exchange wharf.

NEW TURN TABLE.—A new turn table has been constructed on First street, opposite the new stable, along the street railway track. The table is directly in the line of the rails, so that the cars can be diverted from the main track at right angles, and run in the stable for housing during the nights.

MISSION APPROPRIATION.—In New York City on the 16th ult., the General Missionary Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, completed its list of appropriations for the support of the mission work of the denomination. Among the amounts assigned was $3,000 for the Oregon Conference.

OVERBOARD.—A man named Thomas Smith fell overboard at the Stark street ferry Saturday evening and narrowly escaped drowning. He was semi intoxicated at the time. After much trouble he was rescued by the engineers of the ferryboat.

ARRIVED.—The bark Free Trade arrived from San Francisco Saturday evening, in tow of the Dixie Thompson. She brings a large assorted cargo. The bark is lying at Flanders' wharf, and will commence discharging cargo to day.

WENT OVER.—A short time after the arrival of the California at this port, she crossed to the east side wharf to grapple for a scow loaded with sand, which sunk at that point a few weeks ago.

DETAINED.—The California was detained two days in Neah Bay on her way to this port in consequence of a heavy storm, which compelled her to put in for shelter.

ARRIVED.—The steamer California arrived from Victoria and way ports last night about 9 30 o'clock. She brought no passengers and a full freight.

Living Advertisements

A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopœia to protect the human system against the bodily ills superinduced by unhealthy surroundings is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have become exceedingly popular in localities subject to the visitation of intermittent fevers and other diseases produced by impalpable impurities in the air. A family that has escaped sickness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bitters as their guard is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realizes the fact. "I could not have believed it," says one, "I scarcely credit the advertisements, but one must believe what one sees [illegible]. It is the very thing we need in this [illegible] [illegible]." And the result is that the [illegible] [illegible] the first [illegible] [illegible] of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable antidote before the next sickly season sets in. THE STEAMSHIP ARIZONA.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT AT SEA—NARROW ESCAPE

The purser of the steamship Arizona which was disabled at sea on the 27th of October furnishes the Alta with the following details of the accident He says

We left Panama on the evening of the 25th inst., under the most favorable circumstances —the machinery working beautifully This continued up to the afternoon of the 27th, when everybody seemed to be in the highest spirits During the forenoon divine service was held in the saloon and participated in by nearly every passenger, luncheon had been taken and enjoyed, all the passengers and such of the crew as were not employed had settled down in groups of five or six in the shady and cool places with the determination of making the most of a thoroughly enjoyable afternoon, when in lat 15 deg 10 min N lon 94 deg 57 min W, at 2 30 P M, everybody was

STARTLED BY A FRIGHTFUL CRASH

Accompanied by a rush of steam, that in a moment enveloped the central portion of the ship The ship trembled in every part as though she would be wrenched in pieces I was in my room reading at the moment of the crash, I saw, however, the chief engineer, Stewart, plunge into the scalding atmosphere, and in a moment afterward the flow of steam ceased—he having drawn the "hook" out. Had he been less prompt many lives would have been lost from the fact that the velocity of the revolving wheel would have opened the lower valve for a second and greater rush of steam In a few moments more the cause of the alarm was discovered to be the

from the main steam cross head socket in the center of the key-way, at the moment the piston was at its highest point, its descent was consequently almost as rapid as the flight of a cannon ball, the speed of the piston being about 250 feet per minute, which was increased decimally by the force of steam taken into the cylinder above the descending piston In its descent it passed through the lower end of the cylinder, tearing the iron into fragments and through the top of the condenser To give you some idea of the force of its descent it is only necessary to say that the

PISTON IS LITERALLY SMASHED TO FRAGMENTS

Had it not been for the condenser it is very clear that this communication would not have been written, for the piston rod would have passed through the ship

It seems providential that no lives were lost as the time the accident occurred was the hour in which the junior assistant engineers usually visited that portion of the engine for the purpose of oiling—indeed, at the time they were preparing to go the usual rounds The chief engineer was on the point of visiting the bunkers, but was momentarily detained by a desire to fix upon his memory the figures he had made before inspecting the coal in the bunker nearest the scene of the accident. Had it not been for that moment's delay we would now mourn his loss The cause of the parting of the piston rod is owing to the imperfect working of the metal composing it Upon an examination of the remaining part, a very serious

FLAW IS APPARENT IN THE VERY HEART OF THE IRON,

while the circumference or external portion gives evidence of soundness and durability The nature of the flaw is such that it would be impossible to detect its existence from any external examination yet it evinces the most culpable negligence on the part of the makers. The same defects appear in the metal of which the cylinder is constructed, and had any loss of life occurred it is clear that the makers of the engine (or at least the piston and cylinder) would be directly responsible The only palliating circumstance is the fact that the weak and defective portion of the cylinder was that placed farthest from the fire-room and working platforms. Had the break been in the forward part of the cylinder, not a soul in the fire-room or on the platforms would have escaped. I do not profess to be an expert in mechanical engineering, but a glance at the wreck of iron will satisfy the veriest tyro in such matters where the responsibility rests

THE CONDUCT OF THE OFFICERS,

crew and passengers under such trying circumstances cannot too be highly praised. Captain Parker was as cool and deliberate as if coming to anchor in some placid bay. The full extent of the accident was comprehended and the situation accepted in a moment. The roar of steam and the vibrations of the shock had not yet ceased before his orders were issued and in process of execution by his first officer, Golding, and mates. The chief engineer was at his post almost immediately at the imminent risk of his life. In fact, every officer as well as all the crew, were to an extraordinary degree self-possessed, while the passengers, with scarcely an exception, seemed to be equally calm. This was, doubtless, owing to the suddenness of the accident

A BOAT DISPATCHED FOR ASSISTANCE

Within two hours a boat was provisioned, fitted with extra sails, manned and dispatched in command of the second officer, to Ventura, and thence to Acapulco, to intercept the steamers expected down

Since the accident perfect order has prevailed, while everybody seems desirous to accept the situation with a good grace and in the midst of our helplessness (our sails being of little or no use—a perfect calm prevailing) we all acknowledged the mercy of an overruling Providence that has spared us our lives and rendered us comparatively safe.

The Alta adds The accident occurred about three hundred miles from Acapulco, in the Gulf of Tehauntepec The first report of the crash startled all on board The dense steam filling up the cabin intensified the fears, and in a few moments there was general confusion and excitement, women and children commenced screaming, some praying, while the men hardly knew what to do or how to act. Nearly all thought that their doom was at hand, and that the ship would sink.

The promptness of all the officers in assuring the passengers that there was no serious danger had the effect of quieting them down, and order was soon restored on board Sails were set, but there being light winds the vessel made but little headway, the passengers becoming at times uneasy and anxious to sight some vessel which should come to their assistance. On the morning that the San Salvador was sighted and came alongside to tow the Arizona to Acapulco there was a general feeling of relief on the part of all hands, and whatever fears had been entertained were now dispelled. During the week's stay at Acapulco the passengers were allowed to go ashore every day to enjoy themselves as they pleased. Picnicking, visits to the man of war Saranac, picking bananas, oranges and other fruits, buying curiosities, riding mules and general merry-making were daily indulged in by the 110 passengers to their hearts' content They all express themselves in terms of praise for the treatment they received at the hands of the officers during their forty days' journey.

POWDER-POWER PILE DRIVER —Among the mechanical novelties recently brought out is a "gunpowder pile-driver," which drives in piles more rapidly than by any other method and does not require any hoop or protection around the top of the pile A notion of the contrivance and its operation may perhaps be gathered from a brief description Tall hoisting timbers as usual in pile-drivers, are fitted up, the pile is set in place by a steam engine a gun weighing 1,800 pounds, with a six-inch bore is lowered and made to rest on the top of the pile The muzzle points upwards, and the breech, being dished or recessed, covers the top of the pile as a cap. Above the gun is suspended the ram, with a piston projecting downward that fits the bore of the gun All being ready, a cartridge is dropped into the gun, the ram is released and descends the piston plunges into the gun, compressing the air and fires the cartridge. A tremendous explosion follows, up flies the ram and is caught in the brake, and with the recoil of the gun down goes the pile This must certainly be regarded as a very clever way of utilizing the power of fired gunpowder Tried for the first time, and by inexperienced hands constructing a pier near Philadelphia, it drove piles ten inches in diameter to a depth of nearly twenty feet with five blows and with an expenditure of eight ounces of gunpowder for each pile.

Wheat in Liverpool—Average 12s 5d@12s 6d, Club 13s@13s 4d

From the tone of our exchanges, we gather that the volume of money transactions is not increasing in this country and that American capitalists with some [illegible] [illegible] the necessity of confining business [illegible] legitimate channels The London Times accounts for the [illegible] of the Bank of England's rate of discount [illegible] on the ground that the currency in the shape of both gold and [illegible] directly in the hands of the public, is unprecedently in excess of its normal amount, and even much beyond the total [illegible] a year ago when trade was at the height of activity and had not [illegible] [illegible] to the stagnation [illegible] about by the operation of strikes and the caution induced by the uncertainty of prices Under these circumstances there is no reason to expect any upward movement in the charge for accommodation So far from the 6 ℔ cent rate having caused any unusual pressure it has hitherto failed in bringing back any of the redundant means held by the community, and which, such is the general prosperity, they prefer keeping in their desks to putting them to productive use through banking channels Hence if not satisfied with the present supply they still want more even although they may have to pay 7 or 8 ℔ cent for it and thus to lend a still greater loss of interest the only remark to be made is to congratulate the banks and capitalists generally on the excellent terms they are enabled to obtain The feature of the time is that the public choose to have an unusual amount of this currency idle in their own hands instead of placing or leaving it in the banks

Latest advices by mail from London however state that the money market is firm in fact not [illegible] the redundancy which is assumed by the Times article There can be no doubt that money is steadily passing from London into Germany and into the hands of other peoples and the presumption founded on a law of consequence following cause is that if 7 ℔ cent do not stop the outflow, a still higher rate will be resorted to

California Wheat Market

The Commercial Herald of San Francisco under date of 2d, says

There is yet a continued outward flow of Wheat to the United Kingdom requiring for the dispatch of vessels considerable deliveries from warehouse over and above the daily receipts from the interior It is estimated that our store accumulations approximate two million sacks which is quite independent of the still larger quantity held inland for the spring market Our shipments of Wheat to Great Britain now comprise a fleet of 135 ships These have all been dispatched since the 1st of July, carrying in the aggregate 4,450,000 centals of Wheat Up to this date we have advices from England of the arrival of but one vessel of this grain fleet—namely, the Rhuddlan Castle in 97 days passage having sailed hence July 16th From this time on the arrivals of Pacific Coast Wheat at the United Kingdom will be of some magnitude and have an important bearing upon the future of the market With us, no essential market changes have been observable for some time past—prices steadily maintained at uniform rates—and even now while supplies exhibit a considerable diminution in quantity, holders both here and in the interior evince a willingness to sell at current rates They are more disposed to do this, in view of the probable continuance of high freights for months to come

Eastern Markets.

We have mail dates from New York to November 16th The feature of the week in the Coffee market had been the offering of the cargo of Rio per Alliance There was a good attendance, and two-thirds of the cargo was sold within the range of 15½@16¾c, averaging 15⅞c gold on a credit of 60 days This favorable turn of the sale had confirmed the confidence of dealers and the market closed steadily at 18@18½c for prime Rio Rico continued firm at 7¼@8¾c for Carolina It is noteworthy that this crop shows an unusually large proportion of good to prime quality As most refiners had secured ample stocks the demand for raw Sugar was dull Refined grades were in moderate request Teas was quite dull, incident to the close of the year Spices were quiet for invoices with only small stocks in first hands In a jobbing way, Cassia was easier and Sumatra Pepper firmer Drugs were generally dull Opium had been sold at $0, a decline of 25c on former rates and Morphine at $5 40 a decline of 10c Assafœtida had been sold at 44@60c wholesale closing at 60@75c with reduced stock Glycerine had risen 10 per cent in France and Germany Mackerel were firm at $21@25 for No 1 Massachusetts Shore, Raisins and Currants ruled in favor of buyers, while Citron and Prunes were in favor of sellers Spirits Turpentine closed at 82c for merchantable in bbls

Petroleum.

The Petroleum combination is maintained It is stated that upwards of $1 000,000 has been raised by the Oil Producers' Association for the purpose of curtailing the production of Petroleum in the United States The total shipments of this article from January 1st to November 15th were 131,908,000 gallons, a decrease of 6 000,000 gallons as against the same time in the previous year By restricting the production, refiners are in hopes of bringing up the price to a point that will insure them larger profits Petroleum in cases is now selling at 32c per gallon for lots for export. The crude article in the primary markets showed a hardening tendency at last mail dates, closing at $4 75 at Oil City There were 45 vessels loading and to load Petroleum at New York for Europe on the 15th ult., and 35 at Philadelphia. These vessels were to take from 1 500 to 6,000 bbls each

Home Produce Market

WHEAT—There has been but a limited movement in the market to-day, the figures $1 45 per cental, given yesterday, being our quotations still. Telegrams from San Francisco at a late hour this evening note a decline, and we cannot yet speak assuredly of the permanency of the advance Two of our Oregon exchanges have during the past week, contained correspondence claiming that farmers might always get one dollar a bushel as well as to take a lower figure We are sure that such a state of the market would be highly gratifying, but upon what such an opinion is based we are at a loss to know

FLOUR—The demand is very good both for local trade and for shipment. The name which Oregon Flour has obtained at the East renders it valuable in that market and but for the high freights, which prevent shipments by steamer or rail it would be an easy matter to find a market for all our surplus Our home market presents no changes to day

OATS—There is more activity noted and the figures given yesterday are firmly maintained The telegraphic quotations of the San Francisco market are still higher the maximum being $2 10 per 100 pounds The demand for shipment is good and sellers are favored at $1 60 The receipts are increasing and a considerable quantity is in store awaiting facilities for transportation

POULTRY is in abundant supply and prices are weak at our former quotations

POTATOES are in better demand with a limited supply, and rates are firmer at 75c@$1 per hundred

Eggs are again scarcer and prices tend upward under an increased demand for shipment as well as a constant call for home consumption We hear of offers at 42@45c per dozen

BUTTER—Is in fair supply, and notwithstanding the continued assertions of our contemporaries of the bad quality of this article generally we have the statement of an old dealer that the average quality is much improved upon that of a few years ago Rates are unchanged

HAY—The market is well supplied for home consumption and prices are firm at $15@20 ℔ ton

WOOL—But little doing, the quantity on hand being small Those holding ask an advance of 8@9c to correspond with the market East

DR. RESSER,

Third st, bet. Mill and Market streets,

SECOND DOOR FROM CORNER OF MARKET

DR RESSER HAVING LOCATED HIMSELF IN Portland, permanently, makes both

Liver & Lung Diseases

A SPECIALTY,

And is now prepared to treat patients for those diseases

Not being fortunate enough to have treated a great many eminent and distinguished persons, whose names are most generally emblazoned to the world by advertising physicians but at the same time I can produce numerous and voluntary testimonials from those I have treated for the above diseases

It is well enough known throughout California that I am the possessor of a secret to prepare a medicine purely vegetable, for the above diseases, and have made some of the

Most Remarkable Cures on Record,

And in cases which were entirely despaired of by other physicians

A Card to the Public.

Having learned that Dr H RESSER has located himself in Portland, I deem it my duty to the public, and more particularly those persons who may be afflicted as I have been After leaving Portland a few months ago I became afflicted with Epileptic Fits and after having tried and consulted several distinguished physicians, without any benefit whatever, I was advised to call on Dr H RESSER who happened to be visiting Virginia City at the time on professional business I lost no time in placing myself under the care of DR RESSER and am now restored to perfect health I can most highly recommend DR RESSER to those who may be equally afflicted FREDERICK FORNER

Other Testimony.

MR EDITOR I saw in your last issue of the Press a card written by Mr Robinson and I deem it my duty also to make a similar statement, for the benefit of those who are troubled with disease of the lungs. Three years ago I commenced under the treatment of some of the most skillful physicians of the Atlantic States who pronounced my case Bronchial Consumption After treating with them about two years with but little benefit I was advised a change of climate which I made, and came to Santa Barbara about a year ago with the hopes of a speedy recovery, but could not see that the change had been what I anticipated, until a month since I commenced under the treatment of Dr RESSER, and have improved in health very much in that time and am confident in a short time I will be restored to perfect health under his treatment. I cordially recommend DR RESSER to the public MRS M L REYNOLDS

ST CHARLES HOTEL,
SANTA BARBARA CAL May 25 1871

I consider it my duty to the public to make the following statement hoping that some unfortunate invalid may be benefitted by it Having been sick for some time with lung disease (or consumption) I applied to many physicians in San Francisco and other places, under whose treatment I found no relief A short time since I met Dr Resser here in Santa Barbara and knowing of some of the wonderful cures he has made in different parts of the State I put myself under his treatment and commenced to improve immediately I can warmly recommend Dr Resser to all who are afflicted with this dreadful disease, as he makes the lung and liver disease his specialty

ELIJAH ROBINSON

Card.

It is well known here that I have been under the doctors care for the last twelve months in San Francisco and here but could receive no benefit from any one When Dr Resser arrived here a short time ago I put myself under his treatment, and commenced to improve immediately and I am confident that in a short time I shall be restored to my health again I can highly recommend Dr Resser to the public.

Card.

To remove all doubt from the public mind in relation to a question which has created some dispute in San Jose, I feel it my duty to make the following public statement of facts It is well known that my wife was very low with consumption—so low in fact that I had given up all hope of her recovery I called on Dr H RESSER who makes consumption a specialty and in two weeks time my wife's health had so improved that she was able to walk out and for the last three weeks has been on a visit to San Francisco and is growing stronger every day I can recommend DR RESSER to all who are afflicted with diseases of the lungs MOSES CHADBOURNE

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of yearsstanding) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases,

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue, fetid breath, cough consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co, a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat disease that he proposes to cure.

Address DR J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
